

Coree Entwistle

www.redspringsfamilyfarm.blogspot.com
www.radicalfarmwives.com
coreekaleseed@yahoo.com

P.O. Box 351, 1066 Denham Hollow Road
Red Boiling Springs, TN 37150
615-699-4676

Education

Bachelor of Arts Degree, Environmental Studies 1996
New College of South Florida, Sarasota, Florida

Training

500-Hour Professional Yoga Teacher Training 2002-2004
American Viniyoga Institute, Oakland, CA

Apprenticeship

Queen Bee Organics, Sarasota, Florida 1995-96
High Hill Orchards, Meridan, Connecticut 1997
Long Hungry Creek Farm, Red Boiling Springs, Tennessee 1997-98
Tall Timbers Biological Research Station, Tallahassee, Florida 1999

Relevant Experience

Collaboration with Yayasan Pendidikan Kristen (YPK), West Papua, Indonesia 2000
Cooperated with the Dutch Indonesian community toward the creation of an indigenous farming cooperative.

Administrative Assistant and field worker with the Terma Foundation, TAR, China 2001-02
Participated in medical relief work, health-related data collection, administration, and indigenous health training in the Tibetan Autonomous Region.

Independant Yoga Instructor, Maui, Hawai'i 2002 – 2004

Owner – Operator, Red Springs Family Farm 2004 – Present
Established and developed an off-the-grid sustainable farm, serving the people of Macon County and the Upper Cumberland region. Implimented intensive seed-saving component to farm operation for the purpose of developing superior local varieties of popular staple crops and vegetables.

Owner-Operator, Yoga Bodyworks of Middle Tennessee 2006-Present
Through regular yoga classes and community speaking opportunities, worked to increase awareness of the importance of local, wholesome foods, exercise, and preventative medicine to the surrounding rural community.

Co - Coordinator, Regional Biodynamic Conference, Red Boiling Springs, TN 2011 – Present
In collaboration with Long Hungry Creek Farm, organized the annual gathering of Biodynamic, Organic, and Permaculture growers from the Southeast. Coordinated speakers, meals, volunteers, outreach, and site management for this educational annual weekend gathering of approximately 150 attendees.

Collaborator, radicalfarmwives.com 2013-Present
In cooperation with 2 other regional growers, created an on-line platform for public discussion and personal presentation on the subjects of: small-scale farming and homesteading, market and home gardening, sustainable living, holistic health, parenting, and hand-crafts. This site now reaches several hundred people each day.

References available upon request.